

PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTION SERVICES

The Chicago Public Library is pleased to offer reproductions from our collections.

While we attempt to accommodate the research and publication needs of our patrons, limitations may apply. Some items may be too damaged or too fragile to be copied. The reproduction service operates in strict compliance with U.S. Copyright Law. Many items in the Library's collections are in the public domain. In other cases, determining the copyright holder can be difficult. To assist patrons, the Library makes information about copyright holders available in archival finding aids and other sources. DETERMINING THE EXISTENCE OF COPYRIGHT OR ANY OTHER LEGAL RESTRICTIONS, AS WELL AS OBTAINING PERMISSION FROM THE COPYRIGHT HOLDER, IS SOLELY THE RESPONSIBILITY OF THE REQUESTER.

The Chicago Public Library encourages copyright holders who are not appropriately identified to contact the Library so that we may provide more complete information.

ORDERING PROCEDURES

1. Please complete the attached Order Form and sign the Conditions Governing Use. Then, scan and email the form (or send it through the postal service) to the Chicago Public Library location* that houses the item you would like copied.
2. Please be as specific as possible when ordering and use an accession number or call number.
3. Please do not send payment with your order. The photographs or other original materials have to be checked for condition and copyright compliance before we can proceed. Once that is done, payment can be by cash or check, payable to the Chicago Public Library.

Orders take from 10 to 20 working days. If you need the image sooner, please ask about a RUSH service.

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY
PHOTOGRAPHIC REPRODUCTION SERVICES
CONDITIONS GOVERNING USE

The Chicago Public Library is pleased to make reproductions from its collections for personal and scholarly use. Items reproduced for commercial purposes and/or publication may be subject to copyright restrictions (see below).

Requests for reproductions are governed by the following conditions:

1. Reproductions are provided for one-time use. Patrons wishing to reuse the same images must make a separate request.
2. Images used in printed publications, on film and video, on websites and in exhibitions are to be credited with the following: Chicago Public Library. Additional credit information is included with the cover letter sent with every order.
3. Images requested for the Internet will be reproduced at a resolution of 72 dpi.
4. The requester will give the Library one complimentary copy of any published work in which the photographic reproduction appears.
5. In authorizing the publication of the reproduction, the Chicago Public Library does not surrender its own right to publish it, or to grant others permission to do so.
6. Granting permission to reproduce materials does not absolve requesters from securing permission from the copyright holder if the material is not in the public domain, nor does it affect the payment of additional fees as required by the copyright owner. Users assume all responsibility for questions of copyright, invasion of privacy and rights of publicity that may arise in using reproductions from the Library's collections.
7. The Library reserves the right to limit the number of reproductions; restrict the use of rare or fragile materials; and institute special fees for items requiring special handling.

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

I have read the above conditions governing use and the copyright notice. I understand that this form must be signed and accompany a Photographic Reproduction Order Form (reverse) before processing begins.
